Arrival time 10am - Approximate journey time 1hr 45mins - Walk starts 10.30am

Directions to start of Walk.

M4 west (Cardiff), bridge fee £6.70.

At Junction 32, follow A470, signed for Merthyr Tydfil. Dual carriageway all the way.

Merthyr Tydfil has four roundabouts on the dual carriage way, the third one has a MacDonaldis sign visible (RHS), so it's the next one you want.

At the fourth roundabout, turn right onto A465 to Hirwaun and Penwaun.

At next roundabout (Penwaun) turn right staying on A465.

At next roundabout (Hirwaun) go straight on. The A465 to Neath becomes dual carriage way.

The dual carriageway goes around a long left hand bend and continues downhill. Near the bottom of the hill look out for a turning left A4109 signed Dan yr Ogof Caves.

Turn left off dual carriageway, A4109, which goes under the road, across the river to traffic lights.

The road follows the river. Look out for The Angel pub (SA11 5NR, 01639 722013) on the left, it is next to the small car park and toilets. There are no toilets at the start of the walk.

Continue along the road, taking the left hand fork (signed to Ystradfellte) (*) up a steep hill and then round a hair pin bend. Leaving the village, you will pass the Glyn Neath golf club. Continue along the lane for approximately 3.5km. Just before the second cattle grid you will find a parking area on the rhs of the road, next to an entrance for Clyn-gwyn bunk house (SA11 5US). You have arrived at the start of the walk.

(*) The left hand fork in the road, bedside the pub, leads to the Tea shop, Gunpowder walk and across the bridge to Craig y Ddinas Car park (free)- where the walk ends. A good place to meet up afterwards.
